Weekly Update on Select Board activities:

Jonathan Kinney attended the York County Budget Meeting, went over the budget, (3.89% increase which includes current deb of $400,000 that is being paid off in full this year). FY 2021 Limington's county tax was $187,191, proposed for FY 2022 is $193,783. Review where ARPA funds are being proposed to be used, homeless, Emergency responder training, etc. There is a public hearing on the budget scheduled for June 1, 2022 at 6pm.

Met with residents about issues on Tucker Road and MMDY access road traffic.

Met with PWD to go over completing the clean-up of brush at the Davis Memorial Library after volunteers did some tree work, and work done by PWD at MMDY.

Discussed removal of misc. vehicles on town property at MMDY.

Checked in with the Transfer Station, removed broken porta potty that was vandalized, hauled 2 full roll-offs of refrigerators and a/cs, spoke to the attendants about the brush pile placement so the fire dept can use it for training.

Met with Deputy CEO wand went over some issues he is working on.

Received an update on OTH from Sherry Beety, they are still waiting for the revised engineering report from IDE.

MMDY Beach clean-up starts at 9am on Sat May 14, 2022 (join and get a free beach pass!).

MMDY is also looking into adding wilderness survival classes, so there are some exciting plans in the works.
